

MASTA President-Elect January 2020 Report

- Arranged for lunch to be served at the Fall meeting.
- Served on MMC Planning Committee with Jim van Eizenga and have been in communication with Rebecca MacLeod, our MASTA headliner. She will be arriving Thursday evening and departing Saturday afternoon.
- Arranged for continental breakfast service for the General Membership Meeting at the Michigan Music Conference through Erin McLaughlin.
- Sent out Teacher of the Year and Administrator of the Year call for nominations. Votes were counted on Jan. 4.
- Created the 2020 MASTA Resource Guide, which was mailed to all members in December 2019. Thank you to Dan Scott and Joe Harmsen for assisting me with various aspects of putting the Resource Guide together and getting it printed and mailed. Thanks to everyone who submitted their materials in a timely manner.
 - Administrator of the Year nominations were sent to the MASTA Executive Board for voting in December. Ryan Brinks of Troy International Academy East was selected. He will be attending the Teachers Orchestra concert to receive the award.
 - Nominees for Teacher of the Year were Andrea Yun and Megan Crawford. The MASTA members have selected a winner for 2020 Teacher of the Year, who will be announced at the Teacher's Orchestra Concert at MMC.
 - Thank you to Dan Scott who is having the plaques made.

Respectfully submitted, Michael Hopkins, MASTA President Elect
