

StringFEST '09

Friday
October 16, 2009

Music and Dance Education First

A ONE-DAY INTENSIVE WORKSHOP ON STRING TECHNIQUES AND ORCHESTRAL PERFORMANCE

This workshop is directed at a select group of high school string players, grades 10-12, who wish to continue their musical studies at the collegiate level, whether they intend to pursue music as a major or minor or as an elective.

LIMITED ENROLLMENT

- 30 VIOLINISTS, 12 VIOLISTS, 10 CELLISTS, AND 8 BASSISTS
- Fee is $30 per student (includes dinner)
- Application Deadline is September 30 or until workshop is full.

Participating students will attend a recital by EMU's string artist-faculty, participate in instrument clinics, and learn about careers in music. Students will rehearse a standard orchestral work for strings and harp with the EMU Symphony Orchestra and perform it in concert with the orchestra that evening. Harpists will also participate in a harp ensemble.

CLINICIANS

- Daniel Foster, Violin
- Eva Stern, Viola
- Diane L. Winder, Cello
- Derek Weller, Double Bass
- Ruth Myers, Harp
- Kevin Miller, Orchestra & Music Education

SCHEDULE

- 11:15 a.m. – Optional campus tour
- 12:00 p.m. – Registration
- 12:30 p.m. – Faculty Recital
- 1:15 p.m. – Presentation: Careers in Music
- 2:00 p.m. – Individual Instrument Clinics or Ensembles
- 3:30 p.m. – String Orchestra Rehearsal
- 5:00 p.m. – Dinner (provided)
- 6:00 p.m. – Side-by-side Rehearsal with EMU Symphony Orchestra
- 7:30 p.m. – Orchestra Concert (EMU Symphony and StringFEST '09 participants), featuring Beethoven's Symphony No. 7

This workshop will take place at Eastern Michigan University in the Alexander Music Building and Pease Auditorium.

ADMISSION

Admission to EMU StringFEST '09 is by recommendation of the student's orchestra director or private teacher and acceptance by EMU applied faculty. No audition is required.

For more information: www.emich.edu/musicdance