TROY BASS WORKSHOP

Saturday, May 7, 2011
Troy Athens High School, Troy, Michigan

The annual Troy Bass Workshop has become a tradition for music educators in Michigan. It provides bass students an opportunity to play in ensembles, perform solos and receive coaching from some of this country's finest bass teachers. Please join us and enjoy a day of performance and fellowship with other bass players! (Teachers are welcome to observe for a $15 observation fee.)

DIRECTOR: Larry Hutchinson - Detroit Symphony Bassist, has received numerous awards for his work as a performer, teacher and clinician.

CLINICIANS: John Kennedy - President-Elect of the International Society of Bassists and a clinician at bass events around the country.

Alex Hanna – Principal Bassist, Detroit Symphony Orchestra; performed throughout North America, Europe, Asia and Australia, and is highly in demand as a teacher and a clinician.

WORKSHOP FEE: $42.00 (if received before April 16th), $47.00 (if received after April 16th)
APPLICATION DEADLINE: All applications due by April 30, 2011 (no refunds after the deadline date)
WORKSHOP HOURS: 9:00 am - 2:15 pm

REPERTOIRE: Students must provide their own instruments. Workshop information will be mailed to all applicants shortly after the April 30th deadline. Please indicate your approximant skill level by selecting one of the ability groups below. The ability groups are roughly defined as follows: 1) Advanced Skills, three or more years of private study and developed skills in thumb position and various bowing techniques including legato, staccato, hooked, etc.; 2) Intermediate Skills, one or two years of private study, or three or more years public school bass experience; 3) Fundamental Skills, students who have never studied privately or have recently begun to study.
