This includes any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative proceeding, whether formal or informal (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation). Such indemnification shall apply only to a person who was or is a director or officer of the corporation or who was or is serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not for profit. The person shall be indemnified and held harmless against expenses (including attorney fees), judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. With respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not by itself create a presumption that:

A. the person did not act in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, or

B. with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

9.2 DERIVATIVE ACTIONS.

Subject to all of the provisions of this article, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor because:

A. the person was or is a director or officer of the corporation, or

B. the person was or is serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether or not for profit.

The person shall be indemnified and held harmless against expenses (including actual and reasonable attorney fees) and amounts paid in settlement incurred by the person in connection with such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. However, indemnification shall not be made for any claim, issue, or matter in which the person has been found liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought has determined on application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for the expenses that the court considers proper.

9.3 EXPENSES OF SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE.

To the extent that a person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 9.1 or 9.2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter in the action, suit, or proceeding, the person shall be indemnified against expenses (including actual and reasonable attorney fees) incurred in connection with the action and in any proceeding brought to enforce the mandatory indemnification provided by this article.

9.4 CONTRACT RIGHT; LIMITATION ON INDEMNITY.

The right to indemnification conferred in this article shall be a contract right and shall apply to services of a director or officer as an employee or agent of the corporation as well as in such person's capacity as a director or officer. Except as provided in Section 9.3, the corporation shall have no obligations under this article to indemnify any person in connection with any proceeding, or part thereof, initiated by such person without authorization by the board.

9.5 DETERMINATION THAT INDEMNIFICATION IS PROPER.

Any indemnification under Section 9.1 or 9.2 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case. The corporation must determine that indemnification of the person is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 9.1 or 9.2, whichever is applicable. Such determination shall be made in any of the following ways:

A. By a majority vote of a quorum of the board consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding.

B. If the quorum described in Subsection A is not obtainable, then by a committee of directors who are not parties to the action. The committee shall consist of not less than two disinterested directors.

C. By independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

9.6 PROPORTIONATE INDEMNITY.

If a person is entitled to indemnification under Section 9.1 or 9.2 for a portion of expenses, including attorney fees, judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, but not for the total amount, the corporation shall indemnify the person for the portion of the expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, or amounts paid in settlement for which the person is entitled to be indemnified.

9.7 EXPENSE ADVANCE.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding described in Section 9.1 or 9.2 may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person involved to repay the expenses, if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person on whose behalf advances are made, but need not be secured.

9.8 NONEXCLUSIVITY OF RIGHTS.

The indemnification or advancement of expenses provided under this article is not exclusive of other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under a contractual arrangement with the corporation. However, the total amount of expenses advanced or indemnified from all sources combined shall not exceed the amount of actual expenses incurred by the person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses.

9.9 INDEMNIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS OF THE CORPORATION.

The corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the board, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this article with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the corporation.

9.10 FORMER DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The indemnification provided in this article continues for a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person.

9.11 INSURANCE.

The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who:

A. was or is a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or

B. was or is serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. Such insurance may protect against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by him/her in any such capacity or arising out of his/her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify against such liability under this article or the laws of the State of Michigan.

9.12 CHANGES IN MICHIGAN LAW.

If there are any changes in the Michigan statutory provisions applicable to the corporation and relating to the subject matter of this article, then the indemnification to which any person shall be entitled shall be determined by such changed provisions, but only to the extent that any such change permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such provisions permitted the corporation to provide before any such change.

ARTICLE 10. COMPENSATION

10.1 COMPENSATION.

Expenses reasonably incurred by Board members in discharging their duties will be reimbursed according to the Reimbursement Policy established by the Board.

ARTICLE 11. FISCAL YEAR

11.1 FISCAL YEAR.

The fiscal year of the corporation shall end on June 30.

12.1 AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws may be amended by approving two-thirds (2/3s) vote of the members present at an annual or duly approved business meeting, or by two-thirds (2/3s) of the members balloting by mail. Rules of Order may be added as supplementary documents to these By-Laws.
