

Part-Time Lecturer - Interim Director of Orchestral Activities

Fall 2018 – Immediate Opening

The Eastern Michigan University School of Music & Dance invites applications for a Part-time Lecturer — Director of Orchestral Activities (Interim), for the Eastern Michigan University Symphony Orchestra. The successful candidate will organize, rehearse and conduct performances of the Eastern Michigan University Symphony Orchestra. Additional duties assigned dependent upon candidate's experience and qualifications - e.g. courses in string pedagogy or student teacher observation. (Note: Part-time lecturer positions are salaried only, no benefits.) This appointment will begin in Fall 2018.

Qualifications: A Master's degree in music and an established record of public orchestral conducting performance. College or university conducting/teaching experience is desirable.

To apply, follow this link: <https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/emichedu>. A letter of application, curriculum vitae, and a list of at least three current references will be required, and can be submitted within the jobs website. Documents submitted electronically should be in Microsoft Word or PDF format. Audio/video recordings, transcripts, letters of recommendation, and copies of teaching evaluations (if applicable) may be requested in the future.

For questions, please contact:

Prof. Daniel Foster, Chair, Search Committee-Dir. of Orchestral Activities (Interim)

EMU School of Music & Dance

N101 Alexander Building, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

dfoster@emich.edu

734.487.0293

The application portal remains open until March 15, 2018.